What did we learn this week?

Reading: We read Valentine books and books about Presidents. We reviewed our letters. We learned sight words here and this. We also learned about short vowel u.

Math: We began decomposing numbers. We used a number bonds to help us break numbers apart. We also graphed candy hearts!

Discovery: We learned about President's Day and U.S. symbols. We learned facts about previous presidents and the importance of our countries symbols. We also use Nearpod to take a virtual field trip on our Americans symbols.

Love,
Mrs. Lett
