* indicates Frye words students should already be familiar with or have the skills needed to spell. Remember, the test may include additional words that follow this rule, but they will be all words we have practiced extensively throughout the week.

Reading: This week in reading we will work on taking our checklist assessments and earning tickets for Ticket to Read. Our phonics skill will be ir.

Grammar: We have gotten really good at writing opinion paragraphs. We will take one final opinion paragraph through the writing process this week that will be used for our checklist score.

Social Science: We will use this time to cover an abundance of skills this week. We will play catch up as we review some things we may not have covered as well as I would have liked.

Math: This week, we will focus on graphing. We practice this all throughout the year in various subjects so I don't think they'll have any trouble. We will also work on taking our math checklist assessments.

Homework

I have chosen the pages I think will be most beneficial. Extra pages will earn extra Dojo points. 😊

Monday: Read
Do math workbook pages 227 & 228.

Tuesday: Read
Do math workbook pages 231 & 232.

Wednesday: Read
Do math workbook pages 233 & 234.

Thursday: Read
Do math workbook pages 235 & 236.

Friday:
Have a great weekend! 😊

I have been summoned for jury duty the first week of March. The timing is certainly not ideal since that's the last week of the grading period. Thankfully, we are a little ahead of schedule and students should have no problem completing these assessments a week early. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact me. ~ Mrs. Smith
