

Miss Leach's LEARNERS

We have had such an amazing week in the new building! I am sorry that I have not posted many photos on Class Dojo, now that we are more in a routine I will be able to post more pictures starting next week! The kids have really enjoyed the new playground, as well as having PE outside on the field!

This coming week I will start assessing the kids for their 1st Kindergarten Checklist! I will soon be sending a sign up for our virtual Parent Conferences! It is always so much fun to see how much they learn throughout the year! This group is a total "sponge" and learning and growing so much every day! I love being their teacher!
