

Summer Literacy Challenge

Are you ready for an exciting summer literacy challenge? We have just the thing for you! Listed below are 30 possible activities for you to complete this summer. All students who complete 15 total activities will receive a special treat and recognition at the beginning of the school-year. If you complete 15 activities AND at least 2 activities in each category, your name will get entered into a drawing for a prize. Students who complete ALL of the challenges will be recognized at a pep rally, and will be entered into the drawing for a grand prize.

Have an adult sign the box for each challenge you complete, and bring this sheet with you on the first day of school. If you have questions about the challenge, call or email Mrs. Raville at (334) 887-4920 or ccrville@auburnschools.org.

Read to Self	Write	Read with a Buddy	Get Creative	Interact
Read an ebook . (Find one using Destiny on the OES library webpage .)	Write about one thing you did this summer OR your dream vacation.	Pick a book with a friend and read it together.	Draw the setting from one of your favorite books.	Come check out a book at OES on a Library Day.
Read outside for 20 minutes.	Write a different ending to a book you have read.	Read with an adult family member.	Draw a picture of a character from a book you have read.	Watch a Facebook Live video on the OES Facebook Page .
Read in the dark with a flashlight.	Find any book, turn to page 3, and start a short story with the 3 rd sentence.	Read a book recommended by a friend and tell them what you thought.	Create a cover for a new book idea.	Email Mrs. Raville with a list of 3 books she should read this summer and why.
Read a book on Mrs. Barker's summer reading list . See the OES Website.	Write about a character from a book that you would like to be, and explain why.	Read a picture book to a younger relative.	Create a one-page advertisement about a book you love.	Write a book review and post it to Destiny (on the OES website) or mail it to Ogletree.
Read a chapter book you have never read before.	Write a poem about any topic you choose.	Recommend a book to a friend, and then ask what he/she thought.	Create a graphic cartoon that tells a story.	Email Mrs. Raville and tell her about a book you read.
Read in your pajamas.	Ask two adults what their favorite books were as a kid, and write about which one you would choose.	Read out loud to a pet or stuffed animal.	Create a list of 6 titles for a book idea.	Email Mrs. Raville a picture of you reading in your favorite spot so she can post it on our webpages. Ask parent permission first!
