

GRADES K-5 ELA

KHAN ACADEMY

<https://www.khanacademy.org/>

Khan Academy is on a mission to give a free, world-class education to anyone, anywhere. Their personalized learning resources are available for all ages. Video learning segments are followed by practice activities.

LEARN ZILLION

<https://illuminations.nctm.org/>

Cloud-based curriculum for K–12 students, focusing on supporting both traditional and blended classrooms.

edcite

<https://www.edcite.com/>

Teachers can help students prepare for ACAP Summative Assessment with digitally enhanced questions and multi-select questions. Teachers can utilize the question bank on the site for any subject matter or build their own questions.

COMMONLIT

<https://www.commonlit.org/>

CommonLit is a website that promotes annotation, text dependent writing, and discussion. It also offers paired reading teacher and parent resources.

COMMON SENSE EDUCATION

<https://www.commonsense.org/education/search?contentType=flows>

Common Sense Education provides educators and students with resources to harness the power of technology for learning and life. It provides excellent resources, lesson plans, and different assessment tools and creative assignments.

THE NEW YORK TIMES

<https://www.nytimes.com/section/learning>

The New York Times provides articles and questions, writing prompts, and lesson plans in all areas that coordinate with The New York Times Learning Network for Teens.

READ THINK WRITE

<http://www.readwritethink.org/classroom-resources/>

Read Write Think is sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English and provides educators with access to the highest quality practices in reading and language arts instruction.

SHARE MY LESSON

<https://sharemylesson.com/>

Share my Lesson has over 420,000 free lesson plans and activities curated collections for early childhood through high school.

TEACHER VISION

<https://www.teachervision.com>

Teacher Vision has over one million educators that have created teaching resources designed to help students succeed.