

NINETEEN For Summer 19

Recommended by the Librarians of Auburn City Schools for our adult readers...enjoy!

Becoming* (2018)

Michelle Obama
Inspirational autobiography with humor, wit, and charm

Be Frank With Me* (2016)

Julia Claiborne Johnson
A publisher's assistant is sent to look after a reclusive but prized author

Circe* (2018)

Madeline Miller
Retelling about a Greek goddess who makes enemies of both the gods and mortals

Children of Blood and Bone* (2018)

Tomi Adeyemi
Fantasy novel set against African-inspired settings and characters

The Death of Mrs. Westaway* (2018)

Ruth Ware
A tarot card reader accidentally receives notice of an inheritance; mystery ensues

Dopesick: Dealers, Doctors and the Drug Company that Addicted America* (2018)

Beth Macy
Nonfiction account of the history of the drug Oxycontin and the opioid epidemic

Dry* (2018)

Neal Shusterman and Jarrod Shusterman
The drought finally taps out and a teenage girl and her brother fight to survive

Educated: A Memoir* (2018)

Tara Westover
Autobiography of a woman born into a family opposed to public education

Flight Patterns* (2016)

Karen White
A rare china pattern forces a woman to revisit her family and its secrets

Hey, Kiddo* (2018)

Jarrett J. Krosoczka
Graphic novel about a family plagued with addiction and the son trying to find himself

I Am Still Alive* (2018)

Kate Alice Marshall
Young adult survival story about a girl and her dog

The Lost Girls of Paris* (2019)

Pam Jenoff
Historical fiction account of women spies in World War II

Magpie Murders* (2017)

Anthony Horowitz
Fun, intriguing, old fashioned who-done-it written as a novel within a novel

Map of Salt and Stars* (2018)

Zeyn Joukhadar
Story about a modern day Syrian refugee and a medieval mapmaker's apprentice

The Midnight Plan of the Repo Man* (2016)

W. Bruce Cameron
Former football star, now repo man in a funny and quirky small town

One Day in December* (2018)

Josie Silver
Good old-fashioned love story set in modern-day London

The Opposite of Everyone* (2016)

Joshilyn Jackson
Twist on a detective novel with a Southern female divorce lawyer protagonist

The Tattooist of Auschwitz* (2018)

Heather Morris
Based on the true story of man whose job in Auschwitz was the tattooing of prisoners

Where the Crawdads Sing* (2018)

Delia Owen
Coming of age story set in 1969 about a beautiful recluse, possible love, and a murder

There is so much more to a book than just the reading.
Maurice Sendak

Celebrating four years of an adult summer reading list in Auburn!