SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

The Creekside Elementary School Faculty, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during school year 2023-2024.

REQUIRED SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT PROVISIONS

School Responsibilities

Creekside Elementary School will:

- 1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:
  - Highly qualified faculty
  - Research-based curriculum and instruction
  - On-going professional development
  - Safe and orderly school environment
  - Warm and friendly school climate
- 2. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held:
  - Beginning of the year (Curriculum Night)
  - Parent/Teacher Conference Day
  - PTO Meetings
  - Parent Nights
  - End-of-the year conferences
  - Parents and teachers can request a conference throughout the school year
- 3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, Creekside Elementary School will provide reports as follows:
  - Report cards and progress reports (collaboration among classroom and resource teachers)
  - Student benchmark assessments and evaluated work
  - STAR/Reading CBM
- 4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, the Creekside Elementary School staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:
  - Parent Teacher Conferences
  - Newsletters and websites
  - Email, phone calls, written notes, student planners

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

- PTO volunteer program
- Classroom volunteer opportunities including field trips, lunch visits, and reading aloud
- Parents may schedule times to participate/observe in their child's classroom

6. Ensure regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.

- Parent/Teacher conferences (in-person or via telephone) with parent liaison if needed for translation
- Parent/Teacher e-mail, phone calls, notes
- Newsletters or website
- Important school information translated into home language as needed
- Report cards/progress reports
- Curriculum Night
- PTO Meetings
- Title 1 parent meetings

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitoring attendance
- Making sure that homework is completed
- Volunteering in my child's classroom
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district
- Serving, to the extent possible, on advisory groups, such as Title I advisory committees and parent and family engagement committees

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Complete homework when assigned and ask for help when I need to
- Read at least 20 minutes every day outside of school time
- Give all notices and information from my school every day to my parents or guardian
- Follow school and class rules
- Attend school regularly and on time
- Exhibit H.A.W.K.S. behavior by serving, learning, and being safe
